PRESS RELEASE

Magnetone Provides Effective Solutions Through The Most Advanced Roller Technologies

Singapore, March 30, 2007: Building on its reputation for offering superior quality components at competitive prices, Magnetone now offers a comprehensive line of Primary Charge, Developer, Magnetic and Supply Rollers, that are produced based on Japan technology.

All rollers are designed to ensure maximum reliability and performance consistency, covering the most popular printer brands in the industry, including HP, Xerox, Brother, Lexmark, Epson and Samsung.

A complete inventory of all models is available at Magnetone's main distribution hub in Singapore, providing quick turnaround to meet global demands.

Please contact a Magnetone Sales Representative today for a full product listing and quotation.

Magnetone is one of the fastest growing and largest distributors of compatible toner cartridge components for the remanufacturing industry in the region. The company maintains uncompromising commitment to product quality and constantly strives to meet the demands brought by the rapidly advancing printer technologies, ensuring that its product offering exceeds customer expectations in terms of performance, consistency and compatibility.
