PRESS RELEASE

Magnetone Expands Its Line Of Synergy OPC Drums

Singapore, December 29, 2006: Magnetone is pleased to announce the release of new models for Synergy drums. All drums are rigorously tested and being offered as part of Magnetone's matched component solutions.

Quality has been a distinguishing trait of the Synergy OPC brand right from the beginning. It is a brand that combines impeccable quality and advanced technology, with unique coating developed through years of research and refinement.

The expanded Synergy OPC range now covers more than 14 brands including HP, Lexmark, Minolta, IBM, Panasonic, Canon, Pitney Bowes, Ricoh, Fujitsu, Epson, Duplo, Sharp, Sindoricoh, Toshiba and Xerox.

"With the introduction of new models, we are confident that Synergy will continue to be the OPC choice for some of the world's leading remanufacturers in producing high quality toner cartridges expected by today's consumers," said George Tang, Magnetone's Regional Sales & Marketing Manager.

Magnetone is one of the fastest growing and largest distributors of compatible toner cartridge components for the remanufacturing industry in the region. The company maintains uncompromising commitment to product quality and constantly strives to meet the demands brought by the rapidly advancing printer technologies, ensuring that its product offering exceeds customer expectations in terms of performance, consistency and compatibility. Contact Magnetone Singapore for details.
